

The European Mission Network: A co-creative journey

Brussels, March 7th, 2024

Angela Schindler-Daniels, DLR-PT

Objective

The overarching objective of the EMiN is to establish a Community of Practice by building a cross-mission, multilevel network of EU Mission actors in close coordination with ongoing thematic mission networks / mission hubs in development and EU Mission related structures at European, national, regional and local level.

What makes the EMiN different?

It's

- ✓ Cross-cutting all Missions
- ✓ Interdisciplinary
- ✓ Transdisciplinary
- ✓ Facilitates Synergies
- ✓ Cooperates with other projects, hubs etc.
- ✓ Mutual learning oriented
- ✓ Co-Designed
- ✓ Sustainable

.... Making Missions Work together!

Membership opened to all who are engaged in and with the EU Missions
Participation to EMiN meetings opened to all

Our journey in numbers

26 EMiN members on October 19. 2022, (EMIN Kick-Off)

155 member organisations with over 250 active members, March 7. 2024!

400 participants in 10 EMIN Meetings

10 (monthly) coffee chats starting in May 2023

Members- only monthly Coffee Chat 2nd Thursday of the month -9-10 am): safe space for discussion, planning and connecting people!

EMiN Survey – What do members want?

<https://forms.office.com/e/KSaUbRqyt2?origin=IprLink>

Join tomorrow's EMiF parallel session focusing on the future work of the EMiN

Funded by
the European Union

MAKING MISSIONS WORK

GET IN TOUCH

info@missionnetwork.eu

Angela.Schindler-Daniels@dlr.de,

- To learn more about EMiN
Website: <https://www.trami5missions.eu/about-emin>

Funded by the European Union

